In trying to crowd by a trolley car swinging around Kelley's corner at Dayville, a touring car bearing a Massachusetts number was caught and jammed to some extent, but was able to proceed on its way.

The political doers in Killingly are now interesting themselves in the problem that has developed for candidates interested in being named for selectmen on a board that is to be reduced from five to three members without any reduction in the number of candidates.

CONTRACT AWARDED.

Meriden Company to Lay Permanent Pavement.

At the office of the state highway commissioner in Hartford Wednesday it was said that the contract for the permanent pavement of Main street from the bridge to Reynolds street has been awarded to the Connecticut-Rhode Island Amelstite company of Meriden, the concern with which Wayne Robinson of that city is identified. The material to be used is amelstite, the same as was put down two years ago in the business center of Putnam, and which has proved to be a durable, fine looking paving.

Trap rock is to be used exclusively in laying the foundation for the new street surfacing, to native stone being acceptable. State Highway Commissioner C. J. Bennett is to take up tomorrow details of the work with the contracting company, which must begin work within ten days after receiving the order to do so, and it is not anticipated that there will be any delay in giving the order.

Amelstite is laid over much the same kind of foundation as is macadam. The street is excavated to about the same depth. The first or bottom layer of crushed rock is of the coarse variety, the next finer crushed. These layers of crushed rock, after they have been thoroughly rolled, are given a coating of a material that resembles tar and later rolled again. The top surfacing just before it is applied is a sticky mass of what looks like asphalt and exceedingly fine crushed stone. This dressing is thoroughly heated by steam before it is applied and then spread by the workers with as great rapidity as possible, tamped and at once given a first rolling. It is, after receiving the full rolling treatment, thoroughly sanded. The surface hardens rapidly and becomes ready to bear traffic in a very few days.

The building of the new street will allow of doing away with crosswalks.

NEARLY $10,000 SAVED.

Policy of Rigid Economy Has Noteworthy Result, Selectmen's Books Show.

Figures available now at the selectmen's office show a rather remarkable reduction in the amount of money drawn by the selectmen this year over the total amount drawn last year. This has been accomplished by the most rigid economy in all departments of town business involving the expenditure of money and by cutting down expense for new work to the lowest possible notch.

The total amount of orders drawn by the selectmen this year is for a total of $27,319.83, last year's total was $37,228.84, a difference in gross amount of nearly $10,000. The selectmen's credits this year, these representing money received from the state and from all other sources of revenue, amount to $10,176.39, something less than last year, when the credits were $12,565.77. The amount of orders drawn by the selectmen this year, less the credits, is $17,143.39, last year less the credits, $24,722.81.

The total road expense including all repairs, during the past year has been $6,134.56, and less the credits on this account the road cost for the twelve months covered by the reports about to be issued will be brought down to approximately $5,500.

HIGHWAY COMMITTEE MEETS.

Probability That Street Improvements Will Be Begun at Once.

A meeting of the highway committee of the common council was held Wednesday afternoon to discuss the matter of going ahead with the plans for improving streets of the city in accordance with the vote of the special city meeting Tuesday.

The committee's deliberations had to do with which part of the work will be taken up first and as to replacing pipe lines by corporations using the street and other such considerations.

Such suggestions as the committee may conclude to offer to the common council relative to the work will be submitted to that body for approval before any definite action is taken.

Unless a special meeting of the common council is called to hear whatever the highway committee may have to suggest the matter will not come up before the first Tuesday in September.

There seems to be an inclination, however, to avoid all unnecessary delay, so that the improvement work may be started as quickly as possible and concluded, if possible, before cold weather becomes a hindrance.

The Putnam Light and Power company is to replace pipes in some of the streets to be paved before the improvement begins. This company may put a new 4-inch main in Union street, a very short street. On Elm street, from May to Providence, a 10-inch main may be put in.

Consideration will be given by the highway committee to removing the drinking fountain for horses from Union square, but whether this will be done or not may not be decided for some time.

DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED ALONG MEXICAN BORDER

Brush So Thick That Many Mexicans Can Lie There Unseen.

Brownsville, Texas, Aug. 18.—United States Consul Johnson at Matamoros announced today that the Carranza garrison commander at Matamoros had promised to dispose of armed Mexicans who have been firing across the Rio Grande upon United States soldiers about 30 miles up the river for miles.

Battery B of the Fifth artillery, with siege howitzers from Fort Hill arrived here today. Battery E of the same regiment was expected later.

Colonel Robert L. Bullard, commanding the forces here, disposed a strong patrol along the river, comprising both infantry and cavalry.

Every thirty miles of river front on the map means one hundred miles of actual distance along the river's edge. The brush is so thick that a hundred men could lie unseen on an opposite bank, within a stone's throw of the water.

The Matamoros garrison commander told Consul Johnson that he may not be able to drive the armed men out of the brush on the Mexican side of the river, because of a lack of sufficient troops. He also reported as evidence of his own handicaps, that the railroad bridge near Matamoros had been blown up and the train of General E. H. Naforte, Carranza commander of the district, is still down the Rio Grande river. Naforte left Matamoros two days ago on a trip for the inspection of troops along the Rio Grande.

Texas Rangers, deputies and vigilantes today are conducting a searching investigation of suspected communities on the American side for Mexican bandits.
